Racism, Law, and the Social Sciences

Prof. Christopher Fennell

Resources

I compiled the following lists of resources for participants in my seminars and courses that address subjects concerning entanglements of racial ideologies, legal structures, and social science studies. This compilation can provide a starting point for choosing and researching subjects for seminar papers.

This compilation is divided into parts: (i) Anthropological Studies of Race Concepts and Racism; (ii) Studies of Race and Racism in Philosophy, History, Law, Biology, and Social Sciences; (iii) Studies of Ethnicity, Social Identity, and Intersecting Social Dimensions; and (iv) Internet Resources. You can navigate by using a word search function.

Other available resource lists include:

Sources on Anthropology and Law;
Sources on Social Norms and Law;
Sources on Analysis of Social Group Identities; and Potential Seminar Topics in Racism, Law, and Social Sciences.
